

Reggae Choir Bio

Reggae Choir is the UK's No1 Reggae an exciting amateur, non-audition, non-religious, contemporary ensemble, open to all who enjoy singing reggae music, regardless of skill or experience, covering sub-genres of Reggae such as Ska, Two-Tone, Rocksteady, Lovers Rock, Roots, Classic Reggae and Pop Reggae. We even give a reggae twist to popular songs, just imagine Motown to a thumping baseline!

Formed in 2012 by award-winning singer songwriter Fola Phillip, Reggae Choir have performed at many indoor and outdoor events and festivals including the U.K's largest reggae and dub festival 'One Love', Citadel Festival, The London International Ska Festival, Royal Festival Hall, Fairfield Concert Hall, a sell-out show at world Famous Jazz Café in Camden Town, Hackney Empire, Hayling Island Reggae and Soul Weekender and The Royal Academy of Arts to name but a few.

Reggae Choir have also performed alongside the likes of Sandra Cross, Dennis Bovell, Brinsley Ford, Janet Kay, Tippa Irie, Winston Reedy, Black Slate and shared line ups with Johnny Clarke, Horace Andy, Ken Boothe General Levy, and many other well known and much loved reggae artists.
